Park Directory

South Pasadena Community Garden

1028 Magnolia Street

The South Pasadena Community Garden is a place for harmony and beauty where we cultivate a community of individuals committed to sustainable land use in an urban setting, providing the opportunity for residents to grow their own organic fruits, vegetables, and flowers.

South Pasadena Demonstration Garden

1028 Magnolia Street

The Demonstration Garden provides an opportunity for the community to learn ways to conserve energy and water, and have an attractive landscape that is cost effective.

The Demonstration Garden includes a gazebo, seating bench, drinking fountain, bulletin board with conservation and gardening information, dog waste station, trash receptacle, and two bike racks. The seed library contains seed packets for residents to try for themselves in their own homes, along with books that you can take. The City of South Pasadena wants your help in spreading the word to conserve to the community as we exemplify simple ways of doing these types of modifications in your own front yard. This project was funded by Park Impact Fees and the Water Conservation Fund.
